property of Dr. E. R. Barnett, at the matinee Friday at Fountain park, is attracting much attention. Last Friday Dick H won the deciding heat by a scant head. Maggie A was out footing him when they went under the wire and a majority of the audience believed she was the faster. Both owners will be out Friday to win, and the race will be for blood. It is said that local sports have wagered heavily on the result, even money being put up. Fast time is anticipated in this race.
